Welcome to our 201st Club night

Our special guest artist tonight is:-

Liz McKimm

Liz McKimm has been singing since the age of 10 years. Her parents offered her the opportunity to take vocal training at the age of 12 which she enthusiastically accepted. For the next four years Liz was taught by a retired opera singer called Miss Diane Du Barry who encouraged her to enter many talent quests and radio performances.

At the age of 17 she fronted an original band called "Small Fortune" and many well known Melbourne cover bands in the years which followed including "The Band behind the Man behind the Bar", "Go To Woe", and "Him and Her". In her late 20's she took up singing in many duo's and trio's and performed at various weddings.

Liz found her passion for country music after moving to Tamworth to live and work for six months, On her return to Melbourne she fell in love, married and started her family settling in the central highlands of Victoria.

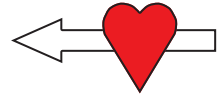

After 8 years Liz entered the music industry once again following her love of country music, In February 2009 she released her first CD with a collection of favourite standards as well as her original song "Tear Drop Falls"

Liz is now enjoying many guest appearances around Victoria and also performs in country music festivals in Victoria and New South Wales.

Sit back and enjoy Liz's performance tonight.

Jilly's Ramblings

Hi everyone. As I begin my ramblings for this month, I look out my lounge room window and I see frost-covered paddocks absolutely glistening in brilliant sunshine. The rain has been good but it is so nice to feel the warmth of the sunshine.

Our 200th club night was really successful - I have heard only positive comments. Many people had not heard of Royden Donohue and they have already been asking me if we are going to have him back again to our club - we will work on one month next year. He was certainly easy-going, a pleasure to deal with and an absolute talent. He thoroughly enjoyed his night with us and was very complimentary of our band, and rightly so - we are very lucky to have such a talented group of musicians - Deanne Purchase (bass guitar), Peter Jeffrey (drummer), Darryl Weckert (pedal steel guitar) and Grant Dick (lead guitar) - more on them at a later date.

I travelled to the Beaufort Country Music Club with Frank and Margot - many thanks for the lovely comfy drive. We spent another evening listening to the delightful voice of Royden Donohue and as we left we wished him and his roadie a safe trip home.

Unfortunately there was an accident just outside Narrandera, NSW. As Royden indicated to turn right, a B-Double truck overtook him on the right side and basically drove straight over the top of them destroying both car and caravan. To see an image of the car is to wonder how it is that those two guys are still alive. Someone was certainly watching over them.

Jess' school production of "West Side Story" is now over - it was a very busy time but very successful. She then had a sleepover for her 15th birthday on the following weekend with no less than 12 teenagers cavorting around the house. She was not much more than 3 years old when Dennis and I became members of the C.M.A.V., so she has grown up before the eyes of many of our members. Thank you for the interest you have always shown - for the lovely cards and gifts along the way and also for the encouragement you have given her with her guitar playing and singing. She absolutely loves the guitar and looks forward to her weekly lesson with Steve Plater, but she does not think she sings well at all so we leave well alone!! Anyway, she needs as much time as possible to concentrate on her Year 10 studies.

Irish artist, Mary Duff, was in Ballarat recently, and Dennis and I were lucky enough to attend her concert. She has a truly lovely voice, and an appealing personality. Her show had 13 year old Australian boy - Straalen McCallum as a support act.

His pitch-perfect and well-controlled voice made for very easy listening. A truly unique talent.

We have had some 'sickies' since our last club night, but I'll mention only the few that I definitely know about - Jan Skewes from Voice FM, Alec Dawson is doing well after his surgery, and Frank Mulcahy and Carole Judd went out in sympathy with each other and spent a day or three in hospital - they too are feeling better following some necessary treatment. To any other 'sickies', please take care because you are all very special.

On a sad note, Don Letcher passed away recently. He and wife Mary were a very popular duo for many years.

Those who knew him will miss him.

Jimmy Little, famous indigenous performer, lost his wife Marjorie just a few weeks ago - they had been together for 55 years. She is now buried beside her parents in Walgett, in north-west NSW.

Jimmy has Diabetes and as a result started the Jimmy Little Foundation in 2006 to assist indigenous Aussies suffering from Type 2 Diabetes and kidney failure.

This day carries a very inauspicious date - the 11th day of the 9th month 2011. It is the 10th anniversary of the cruel terrorist attack on New York's twin towers, which resulted in the loss of over 3000 innocent people - men, women, and children - it was a tragedy beyond belief. Enough ramblings for now, Jilly.
