Welcome to our 205th Club night

Our special guest artist tonight is:-

Rick Bartlett

Our guest artist tonight really does not need any introduction - he has been coming to our club every year since Barry Casey (his manager at the time) presented us at the CMAV with a hand-written biography and introduced us to Rick Bartlett, asking if we had room for him to do a walk-up!

We all know his story since then; he is a very talented and popular young man.

His easy-going and laid-back personality has not changed in all that time - how good is that!!!

Rick was born in Geelong, into a family who have a real love for music, mainly Country and Rock'n Roll. He was playing guitar at the age of 11 years, and because of his incredible ability was in a band by the time he was just 13 years old.

Music became his life. He studied Sound Engineering at the RMIT in Melbourne. He is influenced by the likes of Merle Haggard, George Jones, Chuck Berry, Keith Urban and many others.

In 2006 he entered the CMAA College in Tamworth. His successes are endless. He has produced three CD's - "Wanted Outlaw", "Acoustic People", and more recently "Still Workin' on It". He also has a DVD called "Bootlegged" which was filmed live in St. Arnaud.

As always we welcome Rick tonight to the CMAV, knowing that we are in for a great night of entertainment by one very talented young artist.

Jilly's Ramblings:

Welcome to our first Club night for 2012. I hope everyone had a safe and Blessed Xmas. I know that it is not necessarily a happy time for everyone, for various reasons, but now we can welcome 2012 - a new year - so let us make every single day count for something, remembering that little things mean a lot - a simple smile or a kind word can make a difference to someone else's day. To our friends who have been unwell, and to those who are suffering the heartache of loss, may things improve for you all from this very day.

Our last Club night in December was a very fitting end to 2011, and it was a great night. I have had lots of positive feedback - Tim Farren is certainly a great entertainer and a very popular artist. He would love to visit us again sometime in 2012. There were many Country music events leading up to Xmas and the New Year. The Hoffmans, Rick Bartlett and Don Costa were all in town and I have been told that all of these evenings were very well attended.

A few days before Xmas, our own Dennis and Bluey were guest artists at Colac Heritage. You could have heard a pin drop when they were performing - it was a very welcome display of respect and sheer love of music. A pity we cannot have this at all the Clubs.

This year marks the 40th Tamworth Country Music Festival, and it sounds like a great show. I have never been to Tamworth, but it is good to hear all about it from those country music lovers who are able to go. So stay tuned.

The Red Hill Country Music Festival is on this Club day. I know that Rick will be playing there before he heads here for our show tonight. We wish him safe travelling.

I would like to mention a couple of birthdays that have been brought to my mind. Margaret McDonald, a very regular member of our Club, has recently turned 70 years of age, warmest wishes to you, Margaret.

Happy birthday also, to Noel Vodden who turned 65 years of age on Xmas day. Noel was Sound Manager and Program Manager for our CMAV for a number of years. He advertizes our Club every month on Frank Clark's Thursday night program on 3BA 102.3FM called "New Country". We are always grateful for Frank's support, just as we are very appreciative of the support we receive from Voice FM 99.9. presenters Marlene Plater and Jan Skewes.

Marlene produces two country music programs every week - "That's Country" on Tuesdays from 1.00pm - 4.00pm, and "Sunday Morning Country" from 9.00am - 12MD. Both Marlene and Jan are regular and loyal CMAV members.

Frank Mulcahy a member and very keen supporter of country music, has recently been released from hospital following a hip replacement. Early days of recovery from this particular surgery are pretty uncomfortable, but Frank is now doing fine, and we wish him well.

We have some interesting guest artists lined up for this year. However, whilst not every single person will like every single artist, I am always open to feedback and suggestions.

For now, my best wishes to everyone for 2012. I will finish my ramblings with a meaningful quote: - "Every day is a precious gift, so be sure to unwrap them with care".
Jilly xxx.
