Welcome to our 227th Club night

Our guest artist tonight is:-

Tim Farren

What makes Tim Farren stand out from the new wave of talent in Australian country music is the way he captures a live audience and leaves a lasting impression with a song. It's a magic quality that audiences remember and keep coming back for.

Tim has worked at all aspects of his craft over recent years and is working hard on the business and promotion side of a career.

Tim attended the 2006 CMAA Australian College of Country Music, and achieved a 2006 and 2007

Toyota Star Maker grand finalist position.

Tim's independently produced album, 'Seasons Of Change', saw him awarded the 'Male Vocalist of the Year' and his album received 6 Top 10 nominations at the 2005 Victorian Country Music Awards.

Tim and his band continue to entertain crowds all over Australia. They were awarded the 2007 – 2008 and more recently, the 2011 – 2012 Most Popular Band award at the Country Music Guild of Australasia. Tim was also awarded Most Popular Vocalist Award in 2009, 2012 and 2013 by the CMGA.

These successes have only inspired Tim to work even harder and he is now collaborating with some of the country's best songwriters to find some fresh new songs as he works towards his new single, "Thankful", from the his soon to be released album titled "We're all in this together" .

Tim is young, really down to earth, and very talented. We are very lucky to have him with us tonight. Let us give him a warm CMAV welcome.

Jilly's Ramblings:-

A very warm welcome to our 227th CMAV Club night. As expected there were some teething problems last month as we made the transition from the Regional Tennis Centre to the Victoria Bowling Club.

Most of the complaints raised were about “lack of room to move freely” and “inability to move away from the tables”. Some were not happy to be sitting at a table with certain people. Joan and I decided that this last issue was really not our concern. Joan makes sure that you are given a certain table, but the rest is up to you—who you sit with is your own personal arrangement. On the other hand , there was some excellent feedback about the entire night—“great sound’, “heaps of room for dancing” and generally “a very pleasant atmosphere”.

The central position of the stage seemed to envelop the audience bringing the band closer!! I think the positive comments are good to hear, and we will work on the others—give us time and please be patient. However constructive criticism and helpful suggestions are always welcome.

Last months intended guest artist was to have been Sandra Humphries.

Unfortunately Sandra's father was seriously unwell and Sandra was unable to be at our Club. She was with her family in Adelaide and I would not have wished her to be anywhere else. In his kindness and loyalty to Sandra and our Club, “Bidge” Boyd performed for us at very short notice—thank you Bidge—you were great as usual. If anyone is near the Bairnsdale RSL on Sat 4th Jan 2014 - drop in and say hi to “Bidge” - he will be performing there on this night.

On the 17th of November, Dennis and I drove to Echuca, on Monday, 18th November, Dennis was invited to appear with Heather & David Hoffman on “Morning Melodies” at the Moama Rich River Golf Club. What a lovely experience. We were made very welcome.

The audience listened and were very appreciative. Some people had driven from Tooleybuc. The Hoffmans are very much loved at this particular venue, as they are wherever they perform. The Lindsay Butler/Shaza Leigh show which was booked for 21st November in Bacchus Marsh was postponed until further notice. Put 8th May 2014 in your diaries, because this is a tentative date for this concert.

On 21st November, Peter Coad and the Coad Sisters, with Jim Hermel as special guest artist performed in Maryborough. Attendance was good, as it is wherever they go. Their expertise with guitar, violin and vocals was absolutely faultless.

I am told that Beaufort Country Music Club was packed to the rafters last month when their guest artists were the GunBarrel Highwaymen. It is not often that we get the chance to see and hear these professional guys down here.

Sebastopol Country Talent Club was also booked out on their Club day - 24th November. Their guest artist was Kim Ritchie, and she is always good value. Her latest CD is called "The Power of Love" and when Kim sings this title number everyone stops to listen.

Congratulations Kim.

Noel Vodden was the CMAV Club "Sound Manager" for many years. For a while now his daughter Kathleen has been struggling with Cancer, an illness which knows no boundaries.

Paul Taylor, known as P.T. an announcer on 102.3FM (3BA) was supposed to compere a "Trivia" fund-raiser on 23rd November, but he was unable to leave his wife who is also very ill.

There was a good attendance, including several CMAV members, and Noel's warmest thanks are extended to all who gave their support.

Tickets are already selling for Tamworth's big night of Australia's Country Music Awards on the 25th January 2014, - this must be one fantastic night! The Festival runs from 17th - 26th January.

In 2014, on Friday 14th March - Sun 16th March will be Australia's biggest international country and roots Festival- CMC Rocks the Hunter. The Top Line artist will be Toby Keith on his first ever visit to Australia. He will be joined by many other artists including Lee Kernaghan, James Reyne, Morgan Evans and Shane Nicholson. On the 16th November, Dennis and I travelled to a very interesting town called Carisbrook to a fund-raising event, where Dennis and several other artists gave their time to help 84 year old Jack O'Connor raise funds to realize a wish to erect an Outdoor Stage and performing venue for the Carisbrook and wider community. It was a very pleasant day , and we met some lovely people. It was a nice surprise to see some familiar faces one of whom was Patti Purchase from Maryborough.

A very grateful Jack has told us that they raised $1500.00.

Christmas is no longer just around the corner, it is now on our doorstep. I wish peace of mind to those who have suffered loss, grief and/or sickness during the year. Our thoughts are with you. To all of our CMAV friends take care over this holiday period, spend quality time with family if possible, be kind and caring to those you meet, and spread some happiness around. We should really try to do this every day, but Christmas is pretty special. See you soon.

Yours in Country,

Jilly
