Welcome to our 232nd Club night

Our guest artist tonight is:-

Bill Gray

Bill's very first performance was in February 2012, with the Bellarine Country Music Club at the Valley Inn in Geelong.

In 2013, he secured over 250 live performances, released 2 CDs, and put plans in place for a music video.

He has, very recently, finished recording 2 tribute CDs, one to Dwight Yoakam and the other to Merle Haggard.

These CDs are available for purchase here tonight.

With his shows now spreading from Victoria into New South Wales and South Australia, Bill is serious about his music, and about the direction he is taking. He is currently working on his first all original CD featuring 14 self-written tracks.

Bill spent January 2014 in Tamworth, NSW, attending the Academy of Country Music, after gaining a scholarship through County Music South Australia.

Bill has an excellent, well modulated voice and a very smooth presentation of every song that he sings.

Let us give him a warm CMAV welcome.

HELP NEEDED

Every month on the day before, or the day of our CMAV Club night, at least 3 Club volunteers spend 2 hours setting up the tables and chairs so that you all may have somewhere to sit. Ideally it would be good to have 4 volunteers, because “many hands make light work”! So, if there is any person here tonight who would be willing to help out with this task from time to time, please give your name to Leo Brown or Ray Charters. They will provide you with further details.

Thanks in anticipation.

Jilly's Ramblings:-

Welcome to our 232nd CMAV Club Night. Feedback about our guest artist in April was pretty good, but as always, there were some negative comments, one of which has been forwarded to the committee. Billy Bridge has always been a popular entertainer and Rebecca-Lee had made a name for herself well before she married Billy. I think they are a nice couple and great parents to Harrison, Jackson, & Harmony.

Rebecca did very well to sing "Storms Never Last" so perfectly whilst Harmony did all she could to attract her Mum's attention. What an amazing performance. It was an absolute delight to hear how well our audience responded, at last, to repeated requests for 'no talking while the artists are on stage' Congratulations to all of you, now just keep it up!!!

Our guest artist tonight is Bill Gray, He is an easy-going guy with a very pleasant voice, and he relates well to his audiences. He is always welcome at our club. He has only been singing officially since 2012. I recall hearing him at the Valley Inn in Geelong in that first year. I asked him then if he would come one month and be our guest artist. His reply was "thanks for asking but I do not have enough songs to do a guest spot!!"

Grant Dick and Carolyn Coope stepped up to the mark and happily worked with Bill for several months. It is really special to hear Bill express his deep appreciation of them for all their support.

Once again there has been some good country music events in and around Ballarat during the last month.

Jilly's Ramblings cont'

At the Webbcona Bowls Club, Ray and Lyn Lane presented a Morning Melodies and an Afternoon Melodies, with both performances by David and Heather Hoffman. Feedback has been very good. David and Heather are excellent. Heather was a natural with our special visitors - she related to them very well and very easily and they loved her for it.

Ray and Lyn are now on holiday in Bali - Lyn has been unwell for a few months now. We can only wish her well and hope that the rest in Bali will help in her recovery.

On 10th of July, Kinta and Band will be the guest artists. On Sunday at the Sebastopol Country Talent Club at Midlands Golf Club, guest artists were Whiskey River, Skip Neilson and Michelle Whitely, and they proved to be very popular.

We will be having them at our club in August.

Andrea Weel was the guest artist at the Victoria Bowling Club's Morning Melodies just last week. Andrea comes from a tiny place called Cooriemungle, near Simpson. She has a very smooth, lovely voice, and most of the audience listened in appreciation.

These Morning Melodies are always well attended— in fact, both of the Morning Melodies shows are very popular. Joe Attana will be next guest artist on 6th June. Andrea had heard rumors to the effect that she simply did not turn up at a recent venue, and this caused her much unhappiness. I have known her for a few years and she is a totally genuine and reliable lady.

There was a misunderstanding with the booking.

Andrea would never just not turn up.

On Wednesday 7th May, a few CMAV members took a drive to the Maryborough Highland Society venue to attend a concert by the Lindsay Butler Showband. Members of this Showband are Lindsay Butler, Shaza Leigh, Peggy Gilchrist and Ashley Cooper. Lindsay and Shaza are husband and wife - they have won many awards between them, as well as several Golden Guitar Awards, and Lindsay has also received an OA (Order of Australia) for his tribute to Australian Music.

Ashley is a true balladeer, who also plays bass guitar. Peggy is referred to as the Queen of Country Music Piano. All very professional and very entertaining. They are completely in touch with their audience for every part of their performance. It was a lovely afternoon. Our thanks to Leo and Shirley for a smooth drive to Maryborough. Alan Thomas, Wilma Pitt, and Joy Carstens were also there - and it was good that they were able to attend. I hope everyone enjoyed the show as much as I did.

Warmest wishes to all our beautiful Mothers on this very special day. Until next month, I am

Yours in Country,      Jilly.
